

Miss Arnold returns the portfolio of Fac. Similes to Miss Weston with her compliments and thanks. Miss A. has retained the volume of "Notthcliffe's Autographs of the Kings and Queens of England" - for which she is willing to pay 8 dollars - If the Ladies prefer not to dispose of it at that price Miss A. will restore it to Miss Weston immediately. The book is marked 12 shillings sterling on the outer cover and Miss A. could probably procure a copy direct from London through a friend at less expense than 10 dollars - the pencil mark within -

Jan. 8th 1842.
